Bloomington Woman Arrested in Voter Fraud Investigation

Bloomington, IL - On Monday, September 29, 2025, Suniti Sud (Soo-NEE-tee Sood) was arrested on three counts of voter fraud following a joint investigation led by the Bloomington Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division.

The investigation began in June 2025 after the Bloomington Election Commission reported a suspected case of voter fraud. Voting records showed that an individual had voted twice in the November 2024 General Election. Sud is alleged to have voted once by mail-in ballot in the State of Wisconsin and once in person in Bloomington.

The Bloomington Police Department worked closely with authorities in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, during the investigation. A McLean County Grand Jury indicted Sud on September 24, 2025.

ARRESTED: Suniti Sud, female, 55, of Bloomington, Illinois

- Voting more than once (three counts)

All suspects are presumed innocent unless proven guilty in the court of law.

Statement from the Bloomington Board of Election Commissioners:

With claims of unsecure elections and voter fraud during the 2024 Presidential Election, the Bloomington Election Commission was made aware of one voter who participated in voting both in the City of Bloomington, while also voting by mail in another state's jurisdiction.

Voter fraud is incredibly rare. During the November 2024 General Election, there was only this one instance of multi-state participation out of 37,786 ballots cast.

As soon as this case was brought to our attention, the Bloomington Election Commission investigated this claim. After locating this voter's check in information, the State's Attorney's Office was contacted by the Bloomington Election Commission. Further investigation was conducted with the Bloomington Police Department, along with the election authority of the other jurisdiction this voter cast a ballot in.

Working together with true transparency, it shows that the safe-guards in place will find voters who cast ballots in multiple jurisdictions.
